

About Enterprise Europe Network

Launched in February 2008 by the European Commission, the Enterprise Europe Network offers its support especially to small and medium enterprises (SMEs) in Europe. All activities of the network aim at promoting innovation and competitiveness in Europe. The services offered by the 500 partner organisations in nearly 40 European and non-European countries include partner searches for technology, research and business cooperation, technology audits, advice on European regulations, current programmes and funding opportunities. ## About the event

CeBIT is the world's leading fair for information and communication technologies (ICT) in Hannover with more than 4.300 exhibitors and almost 400.000 visitors in 2009.

For more information please visit www.cebit.de

Future Match

Since 1999, the brokerage event Future Match at CeBIT future parc has enabled exhibitors and visitors of the fair to find partners for technological cooperation, e.g. product development, research & development, joint ventures, manufacturing, marketing and/or licensing agreements.

Companies, universities and research institutes in the ICT sector are again invited to use this opportunity to establish new cross-border contacts for future collaboration at Future Match 2010.

Some facts and figures from Future Match 2009:

- 517 participants
- 44 countries represented
- 1.140 bilateral meetings

How to participate

- Register and submit a collaboration profile online at www.futurematch.cebit.de
- Profiles are published in a constantly updated on-line catalogue
- Participants select interesting profiles from the catalogue and request meetings
- If confirmed, a 30-minute meeting is scheduled by the network staff
- Individual schedules will be sent out to the participants before the event starts
- All meetings take place from 2 – 6 March at the Future Match stand in Hall 9, stand B22

New services

In addition to the partnering event, the Enterprise Europe Network offers its clients attractive exhibition spaces with broad support services.

Take the opportunity to present your technologies or products in your own booth directly at the Future Match stand!

For more information on the offer please contact the Future Match organisers or your local Enterprise Europe Network partner.
